Cancer For College

Cancer for College awards scholarships to current and former cancer patients who are currently attending either a four year accredited university, junior college and/or graduate school.

Scholarships applicants must already be accepted to a university and/or attending a junior college. All applicants will receive confirmation of their application within three weeks of submission. If you have not heard from us by that time please don't hesitate to call or send an e-mail. You can download an application.

Scholarship amounts vary, ranging from $250 one time scholarships to four year perpetual scholarships of $16,000.

Applications are available at Login or create a Scholarships.com user account, each July.

Handling Pests in Off-Campus Housing

by Kayla Herrera, Scholarships.com Virtual Intern When the campus dormitories have run their course and you are ready to have a room bigger than a closet, living in off-campus housing can be an exciting experience. Be forewarned, however, that you may have to deal with pests. No, I'm not talking about rude, unkempt roommates but insects, rodents and other undomesticated animals. As a [...]

Automated Attendance Monitoring Proposed at UK University

On days like today, it's hard to get out of bed, let alone head out to an early morning class. True, your professor may not notice you're missing from their 8 a.m. 300-person lecture now but it could get more difficult to skip class in the near future. Case in point: De Montfort University in Leicester, England is
